From the Executive Director

It is with great pleasure that I present the Annual Report for Leadership Greater Syracuse (LGS) for fiscal year ending December 31, 2024. It was a successful year from both a programmatic and financial standpoint.

Since joining the LGS family as the executive director in fall of 2023, I have been inspired and humbled to be part of the lifechanging and community-building work that LGS achieves year after year.

Our mission as a leadership, civic engagement, and relationship-building organization continues to serve our community well. In 2024, our flagship program educated 51 participants, putting us at 1,500+ alumni! Through all programs, we have served more than 2,000 people since LGS's inception.

This report outlines our efforts throughout the past year. I am grateful to everyone who helps make LGS successful—our participants, partners, and funders—but especially to the LGS board, volunteer committees, and the incomparable Robin Macaluso, who pours her heart, soul, and expertise into the LGS mission.

With the changing Central New York landscape, our programming is more important than ever and we are well positioned to meet the needs of our evolving community. In 2024, the LGS board and staff developed a three-year strategic plan, which was launched in 2025. We look forward to working with alumni and partners in shaping the future of LGS.

Our Impact

Had opportunities to form relationships with people from a variety of backgrounds and those with differing perspectives

“LGS has been a bright spot in my month over the past year. I've loved learning more about the area, and now being connected to so many individuals and businesses I never would have met. This has impacted how I do business, my commitment to CNY, and to my peers.”

-Emily Gozy, Nourished With Emily

Feel better equipped to work strategically with diverse stakeholders at work and within my community to effect positive change.

“Participating was a transformative experience that helped me to develop a stronger sense of self-awareness, enhanced my leadership skills and expanded my professional network, ultimately empowering me to make a more meaningful impact in my community.”

-Caitlin Bergett, MetLife

Participant plans to take a more active role in the community as a result of the LGS experience
